Rome, Italy's capital, is a sprawling, cosmopolitan city with about 3,000 years of internationally powerful workmanship, design and culture in plain view. Old demolishes, for instance, the Forum and the Colosseum inspire the energy of the previous Roman Empire. Vatican City, base camp of the Roman Catholic Church, has St. Diminish's Basilica and the Vatican Museum.

Rome was the 11th-most-visited city in the world, 3rd most visited in the European Union, and the most popular tourist attraction in Italy. The city is one of Europe's and the world's most successful city "brands", both in terms of reputation and assets. Its notable focus is recorded by UNESCO as a World Legacy Site.

The urban area of Rome extends beyond the administrative city limits with a population of around 3.8 million. Between 3.2 and 4.2 million people live in Rome metropolitan area.

Rome has the status of a global city, Landmarks and historical centers, for example, the Vatican Exhibition halls and the Colosseum are among the world's most gone to traveler goals with the two areas getting a large number of visitors a year. Rome is the seat of a few specific offices of the Assembled Countries, for example, the Sustenance and Agribusiness Association (FAO), the World Nourishment Program (WFP) and the Worldwide Reserve for Horticultural Improvement (IFAD). The city has the home office of numerous global business organizations, for example, Eni, Enel, TIM and national and universal banks, for example, Unicredit and BNL. Its business locale, called EUR, is the base of numerous organizations associated with the oil business, the pharmaceutical business and money related administrations. Rome is additionally an essential mold and configuration focus because of prestigious universal brands focused in the city. Rome's Cinecittà Studios have been the arrangement of numerous Institute Award– winning motion pictures.
