INVITATION

ABOUT CONFERENCE

We are glad to announce the upcoming 7th International Conference on Digestive and Gastrointestinal Diseases, scheduled for October 27–28, 2025, in Madrid, Spain, under the theme "Digestive Health for a Better Tomorrow." Digestive Congress 2025 invites researchers, clinicians, healthcare professionals, and industry experts to join this global platform for oral presentations and interactive discussions on the latest innovations in gastrointestinal health. The conference will showcase cutting-edge research in gut microbiota, inflammatory bowel diseases, liver disorders, endoscopy, colorectal cancer, gastrointestinal surgery, and more, with special focus on preventive strategies, nutrition, and the impact of lifestyle on digestive wellness.

YOUNG RESEARCH FORUM:

We are pleased to announce the Young Scientist Awards as part of the 7th International Conference on Digestive and Gastrointestinal Diseases, taking place on October 27–28, 2025, in Madrid, Spain. With the theme "Digestive Health for a Better Tomorrow," this prestigious conference aims to recognize emerging talent in the field by honoring young researchers who have demonstrated outstanding contributions to digestive and gastrointestinal sciences. The award offers a valuable platform for early-career professionals to showcase their innovative work, gain international exposure, and engage with leading experts from around the world. Digestive Congress 2025 provides an exceptional opportunity for young scientists to advance their careers while contributing to the future of digestive health.
