About Destination Singapore

Singapore authoritatively the Republic of Singapore, is a sovereign city-state and island country in Southeast Asia. It lies one grade north of the equator, at the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula, with Indonesia's Riau Islands to the south and Peninsular Malaysia to the north. Singapore's territory entails of one main island along with 62 other islets. Since liberation, extensive land reclamation has increased its total size by 23% . Singapore is a parliamentary national with a Westminster system of unicameral parliamentary government representing constituencies. The country's constitution forms a illustrative democracy as the political system. Executive power rests with the Cabinet of Singapore, led by the Prime Minister and, to a much smaller extent, the President.

Singapore consists of 63 islands, as well as the main island, Pulau Ujong.There are two man-made associates to Johor, Malaysia: the Woodlands 1st Link in the north and the Tuas 2nd Link in the west. Jurong Island, Pulau Tekong, Pulau Ubin and Sentosa are the major of Singapore's smaller islands. The peak natural point is Bukit Timah Hill at 163.63 m

Ongoing land renovation projects have increased Singapore's land area from 581.5 km2 (224.5 sq mi) in the 1960s to 721.5 km2 in 2018, an increase of some 23% .The country is predictable to grow to 766 km2) by 2030. Some projects involve assimilation smaller islands through land reclamation to form larger, more purposeful islands, as has been done with Jurong Island.Singapore has a highly developed market economy, based historically on extended entrepôt occupation.
