PLAN A TRIP TO Rome, Italy: DESTINATION OF Eye and Vision 2018

The city of Rome, which is the capital as well as one of the most populous city of Italy dates back to about 2500 years in history and had been acknowledged as one of the constantly inhabited places around the world. Rome is also often referred to as a twin city to Paris only. The city had been witness to many a great revolutionary changes in the fields of art, architecture, and was one of the major centers of the Renaissance and also endured the lashes of World War I. Ranging from Neoclassical to Fascist; it is home to numerous wonders of art, creation and had been attracting tourists from across the globe for centuries. The Vatican Museum, St. Peters Basilica, the towering structures of the ancient Colosseum, the creations of the master himself: Michelangelo all bear proof of its royal, unique, exemplary and inherent existence. Geographically, it resides in the central-western parts of the Italian Peninsula and lies inside the boundaries of Lazo, stretching itself along the banks of the river Tiber. It has received the honor and status of being a global city and also is the center to multiple industrial headquarters viz; UniCredit, BNL, Eni, Enel etc.
