Dear Colleagues

Meetings International is glad to announce its upcoming "15th International Conference on Food Microbiology" scheduled on October 22-23, 2024 in Paris, France. The conference is organized with the theme: "Flavors Of The Future : Emerging Trends In Food Microbiology".

We take great pleasure in inviting microbiologists, food safety experts, quality control specialists, food technologists, researchers, and associated food industry professionals across the world for our upcoming Food Microbiology-2024 conference.

Food Microbiology-2024 will feature invited talks, keynote speeches, scientific sessions, workshops, poster presentations, exhibitions, B2B meetings, and networking sessions. To support and encourage young researchers, we have a special Young Research Fellow session. In this session, all students pursuing a doctoral degree are eligible to participate, and the best paper presenter will be awarded the Young Research Fellow (YRF) Award.

Conference Highlights :

- Food Microbiology
- Food Nanotechnology
- Foodborne Infections and Diseases
- Single Cell Protein
