Invitation

Dear Attendees,

Meetings International proudly announces the International Conference on Genetic Engineering scheduled during October 19-20, 2022 in Vancouver , Canada

The conference emphasizes the theme "MULTIPLE FACETS LEADING TOWARDS INNOVATION".

International Conference on Genetic Engineeringwill provide you a massive idea about the causes, symptoms of both common as well as rare cancers and the important point is about the remedy for those cancers. The Meeting will yield a look at new techniques that are widely used in diagnostic purposes and also in the treatment of several diseases. By the combination of these two firms, a well suitable remedy can be found for curing cancer patients.

Sincerely,

Operating Committee
