About Destination Dublin

Ireland is the most beautiful country in the world, regardless of its weather. Most return visitors to Ireland say that the friendliness of the Irish people is what made their experience great. Ireland is the second-largest island of the British Isles, the third-largest in Europe, and the twentieth-largest on Earth. Ireland is famous for music of course. There's traditional Irish music and Celtic ballad of course. The number of reasons that everyone like to visit Ireland is the culture, the music, the Unspoilt beauty, the Guinness, the People, the Raic, the History , the Hiking, the Adrenaline, the surfing, the road trips and beaches, the sunrises and sunsets. It is home to 6.4 million people, and the capital city of Dublin has a population of 1.273 million people.

Dublin, capital of the Republic of Ireland, is on Ireland's east coast at the mouth of the River Liffey. Its historic buildings include Dublin Castle, dating to the 13th century, and imposing St Patrick's Cathedral, founded in 1191. City parks include landscaped St Stephen's Green and huge Phoenix Park, containing Dublin Zoo. The National Museum of Ireland explores Irish heritage and culture. Dublin is a warm and welcoming city, known for the friendliness of its people and famous for its craic ("crack")—that mixture of repartee, humor, intelligence, and acerbic and deflating insight that has attracted writers, intellectuals, and visitors for centuries.
