Explore Rome

Rome is known as the "eternal city" because of its incredible beauty, contrast, and vibrancy. Rome is an eclectic metropolis, with the Catholic Church's religious world center, the magnificent ruins of the Roman Empire's heart, and modern, vibrant Rome. Rome was built to conquer and dominate the world, as you will quickly discover. Everything is huge, substantial, and "eternal" in scale.

Rome is the third most visited city in Europe and the fourteenth most visited city in the world, thanks to its unique history. It draws visitors from all over the world who are eager to see the city's magnificent structures and archaeological sites, as well as its renowned cuisine and vibrant environment.

The Italian city of Rome is known for its cuisine. It's earthy, with a few simple ingredients that are so wonderfully suited that they'll take your taste buds to bliss. These meals demonstrate that employing exactly the appropriate amount of high-quality local ingredients is the key to good cooking. Pasta dishes, Spaghetti Cacio e Pepe, Bucatini, Rigatoni alla Carbonara, Gnocchi alla Romana, Abbacchio alla Scottadito, and others are some of the most well-known.
