About Destination Barcelona, Spain

Portrayal of inventive art and craftsmanship has always been a tradition in Barcelona; the city is recognized for its award-winning industrial design. Barcelona has several legislature halls, one of which is Fira de Barcelona – the second biggest trade fair and exhibition Centre in Europe, that regularly hosts a rapidly rising amount of domestic and international proceedings each year (at current above 50).

The city is endowed with some exceptional infrastructures which are in demand as venues for seminars, symposia and international events. Its exceptional transport connections, the Mediterranean climate and the multitude of attractions for visitors make Barcelona one of the world's leading business cities. Business parks and exhibition and conference centers host a wide range of initiatives. Visitors coming to Barcelona for pleasure or on business can also enjoy the city's Mediterranean character, which can so clearly be seen on the Barcelona coast. The city also has lovely urban beaches, marine resorts, and golf courses on the seashore. Nature lovers will not have to go far to explore the mountains in the Cordillera Littoral range and the Catalan Pyrenees.
