ABOUT DUBLIN

Dublin is the capital city in Ireland. Dublin is in the province of Leinster on the east coast of Ireland, at the front of the River Liffey and bordered on the south by the Wicklow Mountains. The city developed rapidly from the 17th century and was the second largest city in the British Empire before the Acts of Union in 1800. Following the part of Ireland in 1922, Dublin became the capital of the Irish Free State which later renamed Ireland. Its historic buildings include Dublin Castle, dating to the 13th century, and St Patrick's Cathedral which was founded in 1191. City parks include St Stephen's Green and huge Phoenix Park, containing Dublin Zoo. The Irish heritage and culture can be explored at National Museum of Ireland.
