Osaka Attractions

Explore Osaka

Osaka is an immense port city and business center around the Japanese island of Honshu where the River Yodo streams into the wide scope of Osaka Bay, which opens out into the Pacific. It's known for its serious designing, nightlife and liberal street food. The sixteenth century shogunate Osaka Castle, which has experienced a couple of remaking endeavors, is its standard recorded achievement. It's surrounded by a channel and park with plum, peach and cherry-sprout trees. Sumiyoshi-taisha is among Japan's most settled Shinto altars. Osaka was customarily viewed as Japan's financial center. In 1889, Osaka was formally settled as a municipality. Today's Osaka is a significant money related focus of Japan. It is home to the Osaka Securities Exchange just as the worldwide gadgets enterprises Panasonic and Sharp.
