About Singapore

Singapore is a sovereign city-state in Southeast Asia. It lies one degree north of the equator, at the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula, with Indonesia's Riau Islands to the south. Its standings consist: top International-gatherings city, second-most focused nation, third-biggest outside trade showcase, third-biggest budgetary focus, third-biggest oil refining and exchanging focus. S.E.A. Aquarium, National Orchid Garden, Marina Barrage, Marina Bay, Science Center Singapore, Marine Life Park, Underwater World, Merlion Park, Sentosa, Universal Studios Singapore are the best vacation spots in Singapore.

May 21, 2018

The center of the city is in the south — consisting roughly of the Orchard Road shopping area, the Riverside, the new Marina Bay area and the skyscraper-filled Shenton way financial district known, in acronym-loving Singapore, as the Central Business District. Singapore has a partly deserved reputation for sterile predictability that has earned it descriptions like William Gibson's "Disneyland with the death penalty" or the "world's only shopping mall with a seat in the United Nations".
