ABOUT SINGAPORE

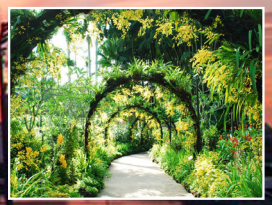

Pharma Congress 2019

As often remarked by former Singapore Prime Minister Lee Kwan Yu, “to develop Singapore’s only available natural resource, its people”, Singapore’s students rank first among high achieving students in the world, with Singapore’s higher education and training for business also being ranked the best in the world. Singapore’s literacy rate is 97%, with 54.2 completing post-secondary qualifications. Eminent Institutions like Nanyang Technological University, Singapore Polytechnic, National University of Singapore offer graduate and post-graduate courses for national and international students. Singapore has a wet and humid climate all year round, but between February and April, the climate is quite pleasant. Short and heavy spells of thunderstorms can be expected any time, almost daily. Singapore has a very efficient system, you can travel on multiple services like bus, MRT, LRT trains buy purchasing a Singapore Tourist Pass, which can be purchased from TransitLink Ticket Office or Automated STP Kiosks. You can visit diverse attractions like ArtScience Museum, Gardens by the Bay, Orchard Road, Sentosa Island, Singapore Zoo, Jurong Bird Park, China Town, Singapore Botanic Gardens, SEA Aquarium, Singapore Flyer, Universal Studios, etc.
