Glimpses of Conferences

Major Scientific Sessions

- Toxicology, Human Health Toxicology
- Ecological Risk Assessment, toxic genomics
- Chemical Toxicology,Behaviour Toxicology
- Pharmacology,Microbial Toxicology
- Immuno Toxicology, Clinical Pharmacological Experimental and Toxicologic Pathology, In Vitro Toxicology
- Aquatic Toxicology,Medical Development and Safety Testing,Analytical Toxicology
- Nano toxicology

Best Poster Award

You will be given about 5-7 minutes to present your poster including questions and answers. Judges may pose questions during the evaluation of the poster

Judges will even evaluate the student's enthusiasm towards their study, interest and knowledge in the area of their research

The winners will be announced at the closing ceremony of the conference. The decision of the winner will be withdrawn if the winner/winners is/are not present at the time of announcement

Apart from the judging time you may also be present at the poster to share your research with interested delegates

Young Researchers Forum

Present your research through oral presentations

Learn about career development and the latest research tools and technologies in your field

This forum will give pertinent and timely information to those who conduct research and those who use and benefit from research

Develop a foundation for collaboration among young researchers

The forum will provide an opportunity for collegial interaction with other young investigators and established senior investigators across the globe

Interact and share ideas with both peers and mentors

About Toronto, Canada

Toronto is the capital city of the Canadian province of Ontario. With a recorded population of 2,794,356 in 2021, it is the most populous city in Canada and the fourth most populous city in North America. The city is the anchor of the Golden Horseshoe, an urban agglomeration of 9,765,188 people (as of 2021) surrounding the western end of Lake Ontario, while the Greater Toronto Area proper had a 2021 population of 6,712,341. Toronto is an international centre of business, finance, arts, sports and culture, and is recognized as one of the most multicultural and cosmopolitan cities in the world.

Indigenous peoples have travelled through and inhabited the Toronto area, located on a broad sloping plateau interspersed with rivers, deep ravines, and urban forest, for more than 10,000 years. After the broadly disputed Toronto Purchase, when the Mississauga surrendered the area to the British Crown, the British established the town of York in 1793 and later designated it as the capital of Upper Canada. During the War of 1812, the town was the site of the Battle of York and suffered heavy damage by American troops. York was renamed and incorporated in 1834 as the city of Toronto. It was designated as the capital of the province of Ontario in 1867 during Canadian Confederation. The city proper has since expanded past its original limits through both annexation and amalgamation to its current area of 630.2 km2 (243.3 sq mi).
