ABOUT BERLIN

Berlin, the capital of Germany and the nation's biggest city, is likewise a noteworthy focal point of governmental issues, culture, media, and science. Noted for its social pizazz, Berlin is home to the world celebrated Berlin Opera and Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, while its assorted craftsmanship scene envelops many displays, occasions, and exhibition halls, including those on Museum Island, an UNESCO World Heritage Site. Notwithstanding the destruction of WWII and following many years of rot toward the east of the notorious Berlin Wall, the city has been reconstructed in a way that praises its triumphs while recognizing a dull past. Berlin offers a diverse blend of new and great engineering, dynamic amusement, shopping, and a wide assortment of games and social establishments.
