Invitation

Euroscicon is proud to host the International Conference on Diabetes, Endocrinology & Metabolism (World Diabetes-2018) taking place on July 16-18, 2018 Prague, Czech Republic. The conference is themed around “Diabetes: Prevent, Treat and Manage” with the aim to bring together a wide audience of industry, healthcare, research, and medical practitioners to educate and bring about a fruitful debate on the confined topics.

The World Diabetes 2018 will be a great event to network, learn and engage with professionals in the field of diabetes and endocrinology.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant toxicological forum in person is your active participation.

Best Regards ,
Organizing Committee

About Destination Prague

Prague is the capital city and biggest city of the Czech Republic. It is one of the biggest urban areas of Central Europe and has filled in as the capital of the historical Bohemia for quite a long time. The city is acclaimed for its novel medieval engineering, the historical centre of Prague is engraved in the World Heritage List. This mysterious city of extensions, houses of God, gold-tipped towers and church arches, has been reflected in the swan-filled Vltava River for over ten centuries. Prague's medieval focus remains an awesome blend of cobbled paths, walled yards, houses of prayer and endless church towers all in the shadow of her grand ninth century mansion that looks eastbound as the sun sets behind her.Prague is likewise a cutting edge and energetic city loaded with vitality, music, social craftsmanship, fine eating and unique occasions obliging the free explorer's hunger for experience. It is viewed by many as one of Europe's most beguiling, brilliant and lovely urban communities, Prague has turned into the most prevalent travel goal in Central Europe alongside Vienna and Krakow. A large number of visitors visit the city consistently.
