Invitation

Welcome to Barcelona, the City of Arts Science and sports experience the science of Cardiology illuminated as never before. EuroSciCon is proud to host the 27th Edition of International Conference on World Heart Congress" to be held during June 15-16, 2020 at Barcelona, Spain. This year's theme is Global Trends in Cardiology Research and Technologies. Heart Congress 2020 will provide an unprecedented opportunity for Cardiologists of all stripes and colors to share their research with colleagues, and discuss and debate the latest advances in the field. We invite Cardiologists, Pharmacologists, and Scientists in related disciplines to come together and inform each other in an environment conducive to education and interaction. Seasoned scientists, Young researchers, Mid-career professionals and just starting out are all welcome.

With a broad array of keynote presentations, panel discussions, workshops, and poster sessions, the Heart Conferences is the perfect venue not only to dive into your particular Cardiology and Cardiologists Education interests but also to expand the scope of your knowledge. Heart Congress 2020 is a global platform to discuss and learn about Heart associated diseases and their new advances in treatment patterns.

The Organizing Committee has done its best to set up a framework that we think will allow for a creative interplay of ideas. All we need now to convert the extensive program on paper to an active and vibrant toxicological forum in person is your active participation.

About Destination Barcelona

Capital city of the community of Catalonia in the Kingdom of Spain, Barcelona is utterly incomparable. It is the largest metropolitan area on the mediterranean sea, situated on the coast between the mouths of the rivers Llobregat and Besòs, and restricted to the west by the Serra de Collserola mountain series. Barcelona has a rich cultural heritage and is today an important cultural center and a major tourist destination. Barcelona is one of the world's foremost tourist, economic, trade fair and cultural centers, and its influence in commerce, education, entertainment, media, fashion, science, and the arts all contribute to its position as one of the world's major international cities.

Barcelona has a humid subtropical climate neighbouring a maritime Mediterranean climate, with mildly cool winters and hot, muggy summers, while the drizzliest seasons are autumn and spring.

Barcelona has a wide assortment of tourist attractions, think La Sagrada Familia, Las Ramblas, the Gothic Quarter, Park Guell and the long, wide beaches facing the Mediterranean Sea. Essentially, Barcelona reaches out to a diverse group of people – think history and architecture enthusiasts, shopping queens, foodies and beach-goers.

Barcelona beach was recorded as number 1 in the rundown of top 10 city beaches in the world according to National Geographic and Discovery Channel. It contains 7 beaches, totaling 4.5 kilometers of coastline. The National Museum of Art of Catalonia owns a well-known collection of Romanesque art, while the Barcelona Museum of Contemporary Art emphases on post-1945 Catalan and Spanish art. International food is superb in Barcelona, especially when it comes to Japaese-style noodle bars, which have become popular in the last 10 year

There's something to delight everyone in Barcelona.
