ABOUT MADRID

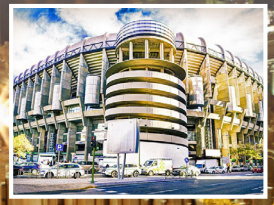

European Nanotechnology 2019

Madrid is the capital of Spain and the biggest district in both the community of Madrid and Spain as a whole. The city has practically 3.3 million occupants and a metropolitan area population of approximately 6.5 million. It is the third-biggest city in the European Union (EU), smaller than only London and Berlin, and its monocentric metropolitan region is the third-biggest in the EU smaller only than those of London and Paris. The region covers 604.3 km. Madrid is a modern metropolis that offers a sample of the real Spain. Wide roads are blocked with traffic, yet wonderful parks separate the urban sprawl. The Museo del Prado is one of the most prominent tourist attractions in Madrid. Visit the home of the Real Madrid football club Santiago Bernabeu Stadium.
