Past Event Report

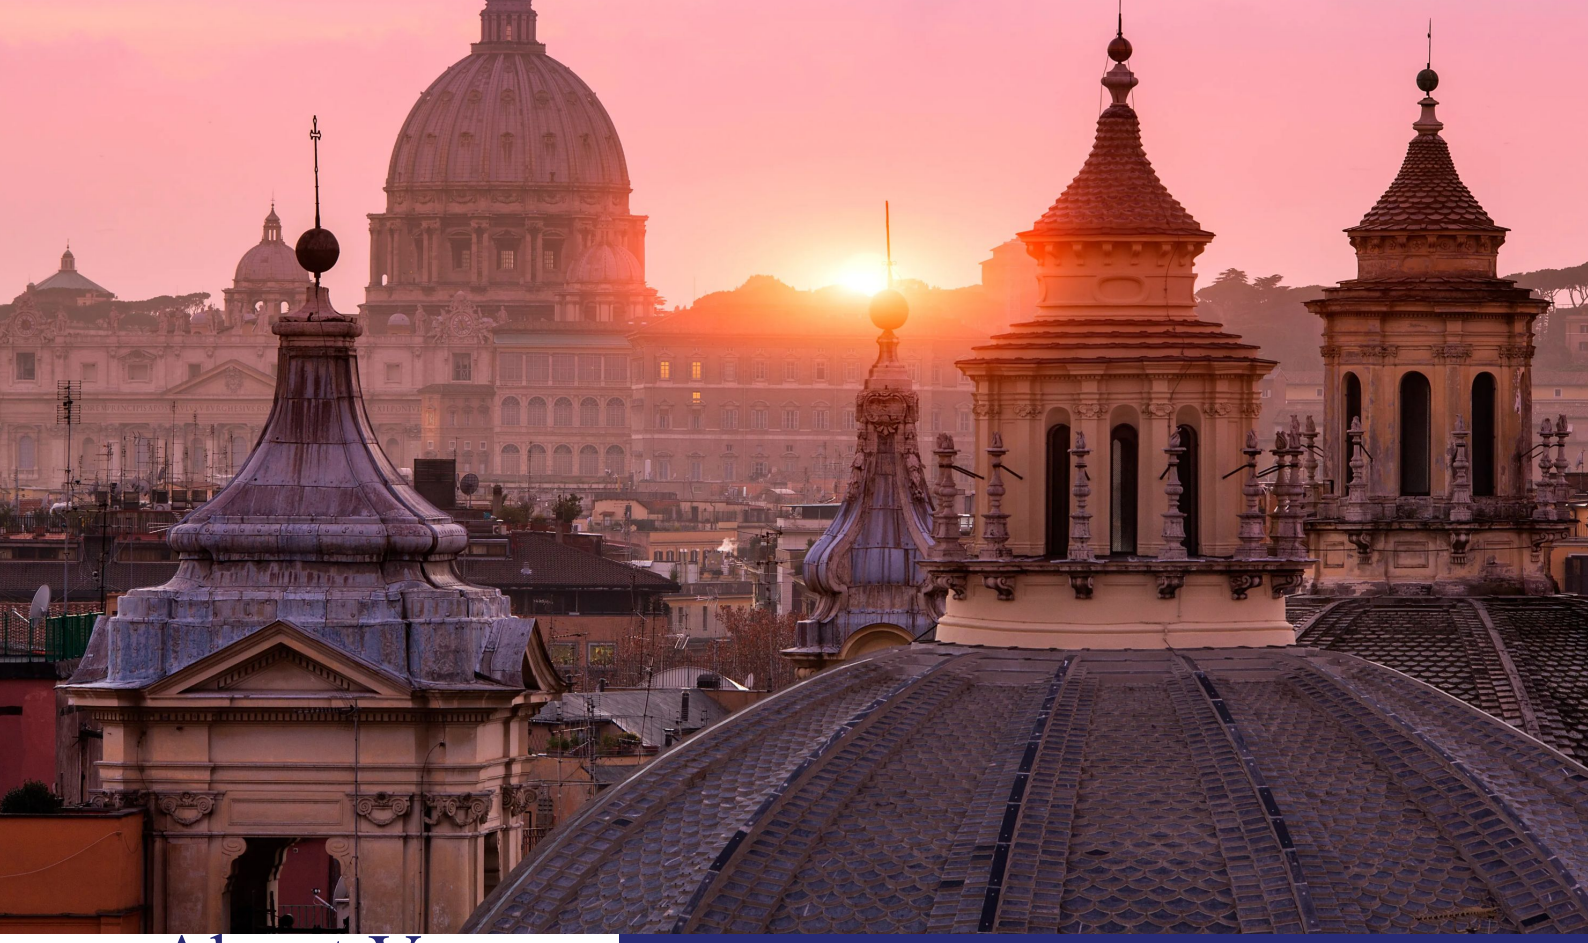

Meetings International Conference successfully hosted its third series on the "International Conference on Gynecology and Obstetrics in Rome, Italy. The conference was organised with a theme focused on "Revealing Innovations to Improve Women's Health" and it was a great success.

Eminent keynote speakers from various universities addressed the gathering.

The generous response and active participation of the organising committee members played a major role in the success of the conference. On the other hand, we take the opportunity to thank all the speakers, delegates, and participants for providing their valuable support and time for the conference.

About Venue:

Rome is the capital city of Italy. It is also the capital of the Lazio region, the center of the Metropolitan City of Rome, and a special comune named Comune di Roma Capitale. With 2,860,009 residents in 1,285 km2 (496.1 sq mi), Rome is the country's most populated comune and the third most populous city in the European Union by population within city limits. The Metropolitan City of Rome, with a population of 4,355,725 residents, is the most populous metropolitan city in Italy. Its metropolitan area is the third-most populous in Italy. Rome is located in the central-western portion of the Italian Peninsula, within Lazio, along the shores of the Tiber. Vatican City (the smallest country in the world) is an independent country inside the city boundaries of Rome, the only existing example of a country within a city. Rome is often referred to as the City of Seven Hills due to its geographic location, and also as the "Eternal City". Rome is generally considered to be the "cradle of Western civilization and Christian culture", and the center of the Catholic Church.
