5th International Conference on MATERIALS SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

Materials Science 2019

April 18-19, 2019 | Vancouver, Canada

INVITATION

Materials Science 2019

Meetings International proudly announces the 5th International Conference on Materials Science & Technology scheduled during April 18-19, 2019 at Vancouver, Canada. The conference emphasizes the theme "Taking a leap towards the future of material science".

Materials Science focuses on synthesis, processing, characterization, structure, physical properties and computational aspects of nano-crystalline, crystalline, amorphous and glassy forms of ceramics, semiconductors, layered insertion compounds, low-dimensional compounds and systems, fast-ion conductors, polymers and dielectrics. Materials technology furnishes an awesome chance to coordinate with peers from around the globe concentrated on finding out about Materials Science and its Processing & Manufacturing.

Sincerely,
Operating Committee
CEO and Founder
Meetings International PTE LTD.
